

Seven Steps to Answered Prayer

Week 5

Summary of the first 5 out of the 7 steps to answered prayer. The 5 steps are as follows

1. Decide what you want from God and _____ that definitely promise you these things.
2. Ask God for the things you want and _____.
3. Let every _____ and desire affirm that you have what you asked for.
4. _____ against every evil thought that comes into your mind to try to make you doubt God's word.
5. _____ on God's promises

Step Number 6: Continually Thank God for The Answer

6. Step number six to receiving answered prayer is in your every waking moment, think on the _____ and _____ and _____. This will increase your faith. Lift your heart to God continually increasing praise and gratitude for what he has done and for what he's doing for you now.
7. Philippians 4:6 be anxious for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God

The scripture says do not fret or have any anxiety about anything therefore you can let your requests be known with _____ because you know _____. When I come across situations which seem impossible, I just say that all things are possible to him that believes and that I am believer. Sometimes the devil will tempt me with thoughts that try to hinder my _____, but I have the Word to stand on and because God's word is true. I thank God for my answer before I ever see it come to pass!

Step Number 7: Make Every Prayer A Statement of Faith

8. Step number seven to receiving answered prayer is make every prayer relative to what you've asked a _____ instead of unbelief.
9. You can think and say words of faith just as easily as you can think and say words of the doubt and unbelief. It is thinking _____ and speaking _____ that leads the heart out of defeat and into victory.
10. Smith Wigglesworth once said, "If you pray seven times for any one thing, you prayed six times in unbelief." Andrew Murray said that if what you have prayed for has not materialized, and you do pray again, do not pray for it again _____ because that would be unbelief. He said to _____ God that you asked for it and remind Him of what His word says; put Him in _____ of his promises (Isaiah 43:26). Tell him that you are expecting it and thank Him for it. Isaiah 43: 26: “Put Me in remembrance; Let us contend together...”

Don't Undo Your Prayers

11. Many times, people _____ their prayers. They get into unbelief and just stay there, and it is as if they are _____ in prayer. They need to get into faith and stay there. They may have to stand their ground for a period of time. But if they stay in the arena of faith, the answer will come.
12. Many times, we are cheated out of the _____ that God wants us to have in this life because we are not cooperating with Him. Instead of praying again for the same thing we should _____.

Use the Faith That You Have

13. In Romans 12:3 “For I say, through the grace given to me, to everyone who is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think soberly, as God has dealt to each one a measure of faith”. God has dealt to every man the _____ of faith. Therefore, every believer can receive answers to his prayers. If you say you don't have faith, then you are making God out to be a liar. You do have faith. Every man has _____ if he is saved. But it is _____ faith thoughts and _____ faith words and that lead the heart out of defeat into victory.
14. Follow these seven steps to answered prayer and expect to receive answers to your prayers. Do not accept _____ and do not be _____! It is your family right in Christ, your redemptive right, your gospel right, and your right as a recreated blood-bought, Child of God to have what God has promised you. By faith appropriate what belongs to you and it will come. It is yours now by faith. So, accept God's Word and believe it and it will become a _____ in your life!

Chapter 3 Praying in Jesus name

15. _____ is our mediator, intercessor, advocate and our Lord. He stands between us and the _____. No place in the Bible is it recorded that Jesus told his disciples to pray to Him. And they were always to pray to the Father in Jesus' name.

John 16:23-24

23 “And in that day you will ask Me nothing. Most assuredly, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in My name He will give you. 24 Until now you have asked nothing in My name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full.

16. In John 16:23-24 ,Jesus was talking about His _____ at the right-hand of the Father where he would soon ascend and be seated (Hebrews 1:3). Another translation John 16:23 reads “In that day you shall not pray to Me”. Jesus said we are to ask the Father in His Name. There is no any other way to approach God.
17. Certainly, we can worship Jesus and worship is a type of prayer but when it comes to praying and asking, we must ask the _____ in the name of the _____.
18. In Ephesians 3:14-15, it says “For this cause, I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named” It is not as important which church you belong to, as it is _____. Praise God, believers are in the family of God. And we can approach the Father God in prayer in the name of Jesus!

19. Many people know about praying to God, but do not know anything about praying to the Father. When they are praying, they do not sound as if they really know God as Father. He is God to the world, but He is _____ . There is real joy in knowing that the Father will _____ our prayers.

Ask, That Your Joy May Be Full

20. God hears you when you pray according to His _____. And your joy can be _____ even before you see the answer because you are resting on the _____ of God's word. There is joy that comes when you get answers to prayer. But if you're not getting answers or if you're not getting results there can be a look of trouble or perplexity on your countenance. There is an air of doubt, perplexity, fear and confusion about you. But we need to have that joy even _____.

21. Many Christian's life become stagnant because there is no _____. You can increase your joy by _____ about the Lord's goodness in your own lives. There is no joy in all the world like leading a poor lost soul to Christ. So, if you're not doing that, remember the way to keep your joy is to _____.

Worry Blocks God's Answers to Your Prayers

22. In John 16:24 "Until now you have asked nothing in My name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full. God wants us to receive answers to our prayers and be full of joy". How can we be full of joy and victory when the situation looks dark and we have needs in our lives? The answer is we are full of joy because we walk by _____, not by sight. We know that whatever we ask of the Father according to the _____, He will give it to us-that our _____ maybe full.

23. Once you have asked the Father to meet your need in Jesus' name, you need to have joy before you ever have the answer. You will _____ God from helping you if you're _____ and trying to figure out how the answer is going to come. If you are trying to figure things out, then you have the care or burden on the problem, and that means God does not have it. You are still _____ that load, and God can't help you.

24. _____ can hinder you from receiving answers. Worry can stop God from being able to move on your behalf.

25. When you pray in faith, according to God's words, you're full of joy and rejoicing even before the answer materializes because you know god heard you. You have His _____ for it!
